What Do You See? Using the Arts to Enrich Understanding of the African American Experience

THE SANKOFA COLLABORATIVE
Presents
A Workshop Focused on The Arts

Registration Form

June 12, 2019 • 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Grounds For Sculpture • Hamilton, New Jersey

Early Bird price of $75 per person until May 1st
Includes breakfast, lunch, and admission to the Grounds For Sculpture
Registration closes June 4, 2019 • Space limited

NAME _____
EMAIL _____ PHONE # _____
ORGANIZATION _____ ZIP CODE _____
(enter N/A if you are not attending on behalf of an organization)

_____ Individual Ticket(s) @ $75 each (registrations received by May 1, 2019)
_____ Individual Ticket(s) @ $85 each (after May 1, 2019)
_____ Student/Senior Ticket(s) @ $75 each
_____ TOTAL ENCLOSED

If you are registering for multiple attendees, please add their names and email addresses here:

_____

_____

Please also let us know if you or anyone in your group has a dietary restriction:

_____

Please make your check out to Trent House Association. Mail your form and payment to Trent House Association, 15 Market Street, Trenton, NJ 08611. Please call (609) 334-6904 or email sstephens@capd.org if you have any questions or would like more information.

Text JOINSANKOFA to 22828 to join our mailing list

The Sankofa Collaborative is the work of five New Jersey organizations – 1804 Consultants, Grounds For Sculpture, New Jersey Historical Society, Stoutsburg Sourland African American Museum, and 1719 William Trent House Museum. This workshop is made possible, in part, through generous grants from the NJ Council for the Humanities and the NJ Historical Commission.