

DAR's Efforts to Preserve the Memory of Jack Cudjo Banquante

REVOLUTIONARY WAR SOLDIER AND PATRIOT

JACK CUDJO BANQUANTE

ca. 1723 to 5 Mar 1823

Brought from Africa's Gold Coast and enslaved.

Joined the Continental Army in Morrystown NJ
under Captains Peter Dickerson and Jeremiah Ballard.

Served in battles at Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth, Sullivan Expedition, Springfield and Yorktown.

For his service, granted freedom and an acre of land in Newark NJ where he built a successful horticulture business.

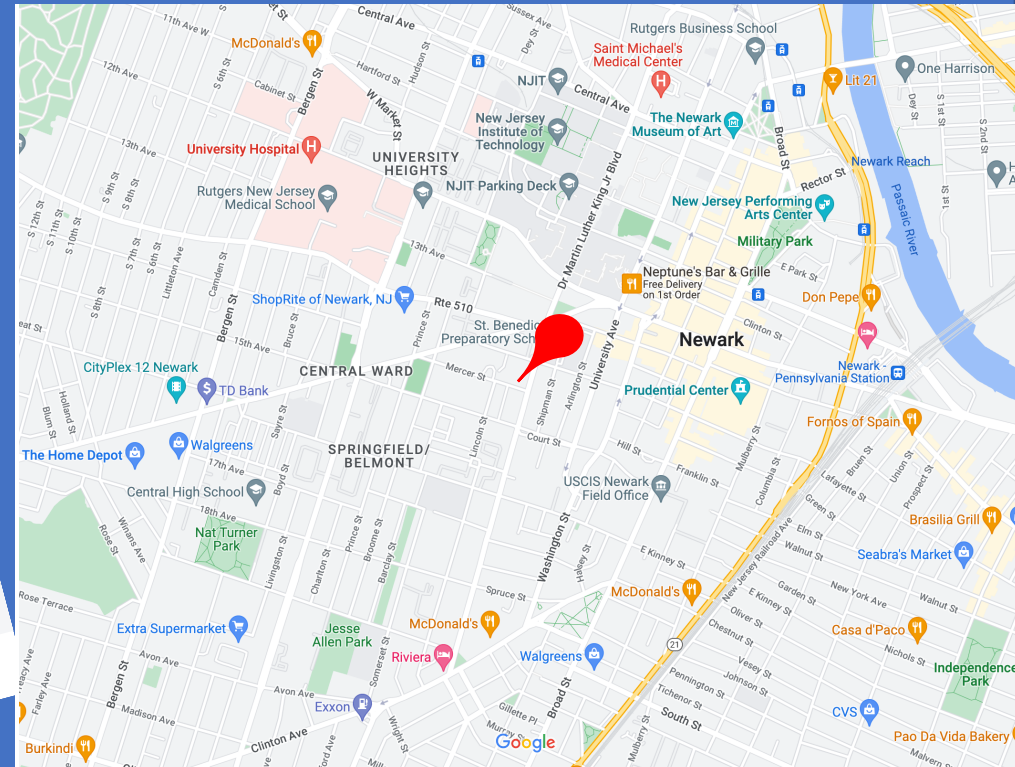

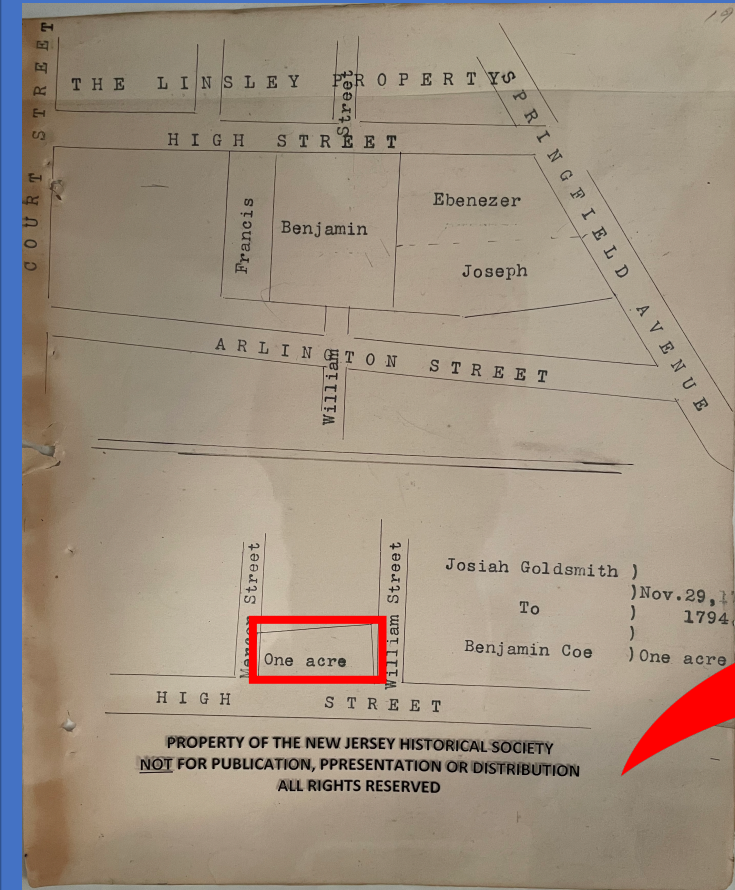

Buried at the Trinity Church Cemetery in Newark, now built over.

Marker Placed by Morrystown Chapter NSDAR

DATE

Draft Plaque Design

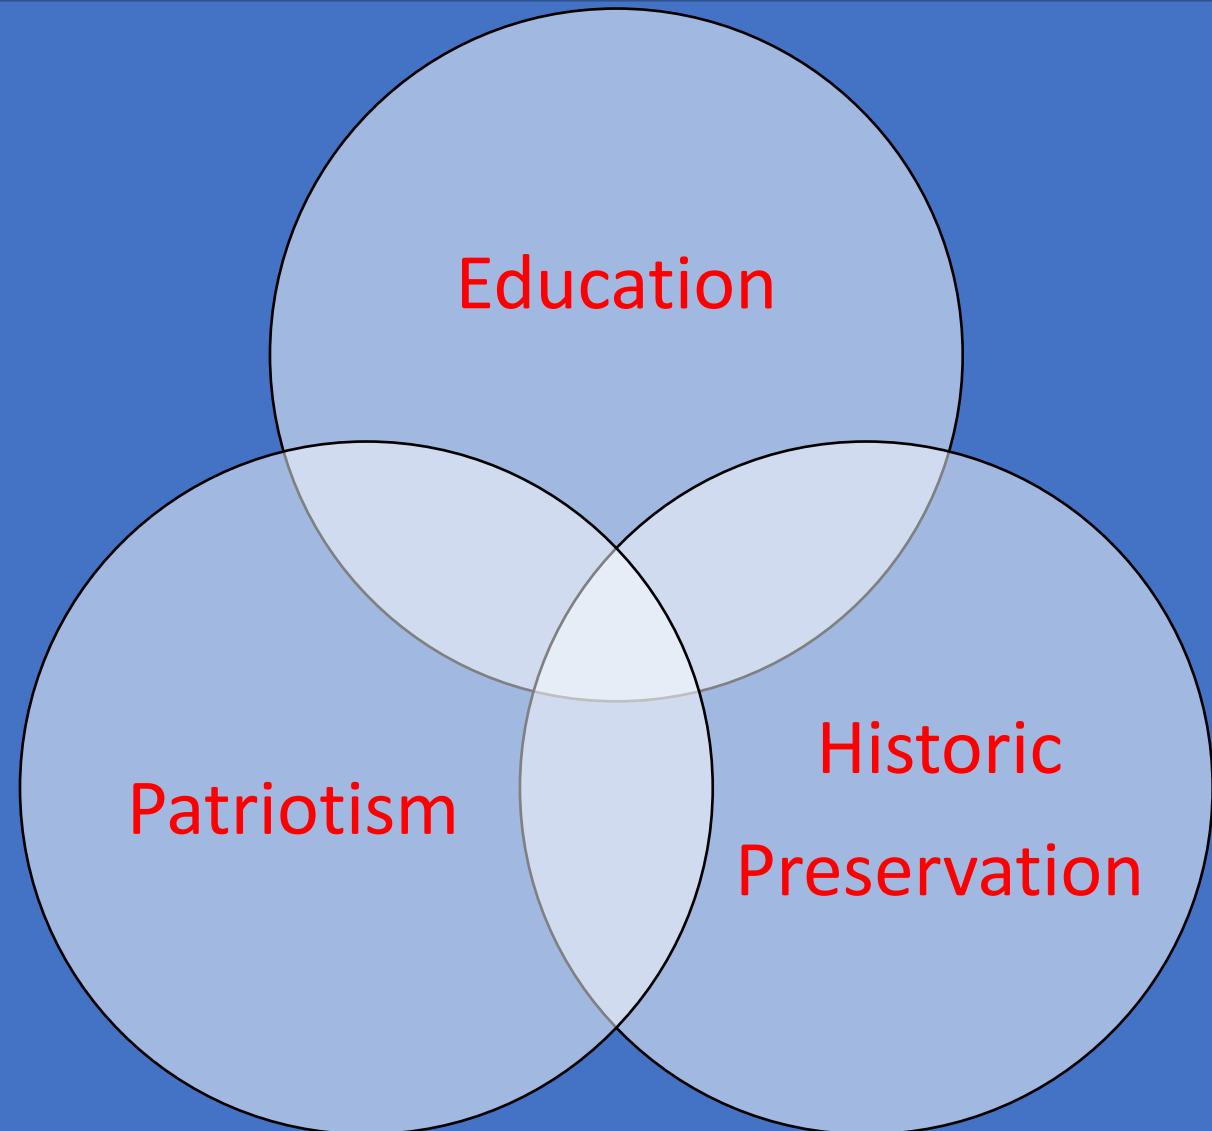

Cudjo's Land

NJHS MG 1421 Box 1, Folder 3, Coe Family Genealogy
Used with permission from NJHS

Daughters of the American Revolution

A lineage-based service organization for women who can trace their ancestry to a Revolutionary War Patriot

DAR

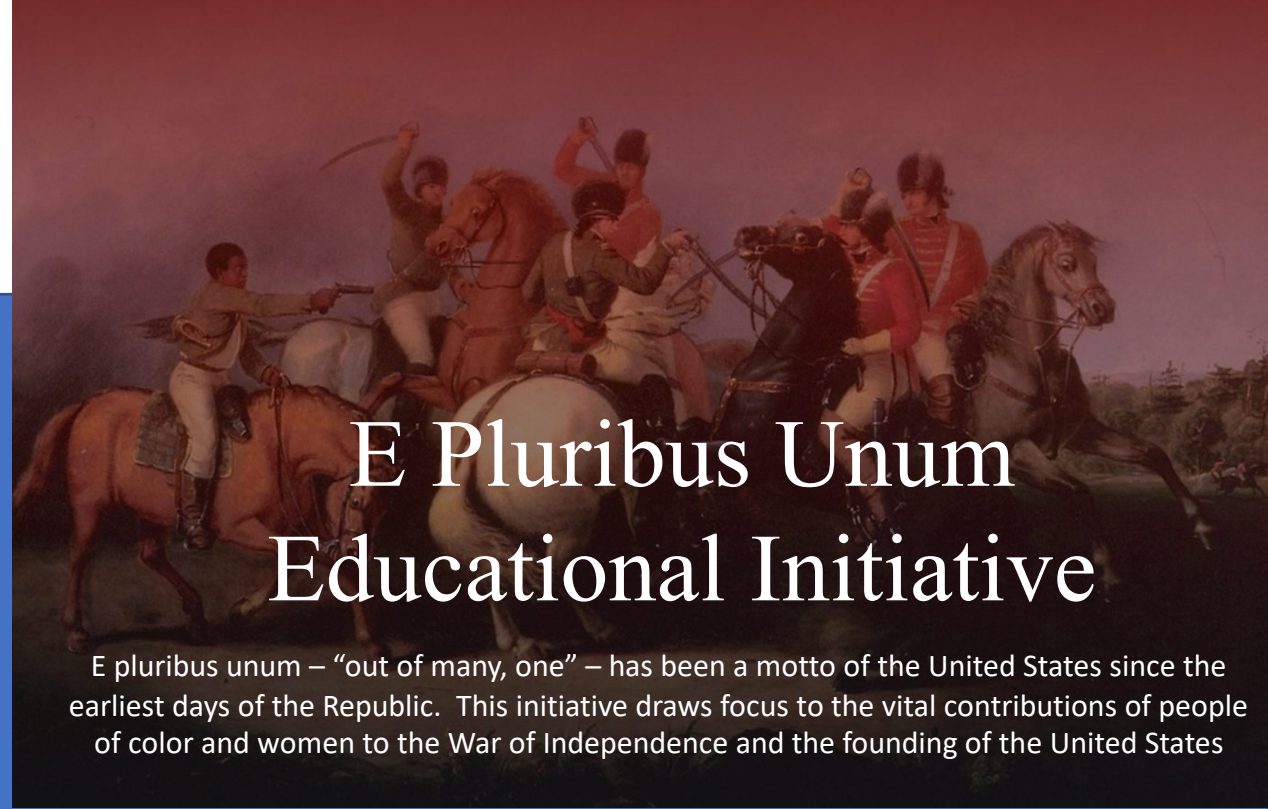

MORRISTOWN CHAPTER

Commemorative Markers

Oliver Cromwell Marker, April 2022, Burlington, NJ

E Pluribus Unum Educational Initiative

E pluribus unum – “out of many, one” – has been a motto of the United States since the earliest days of the Republic. This initiative draws focus to the vital contributions of people of color and women to the War of Independence and the founding of the United States

Specialized Research Support, including Patriots of Color Database and Forgotten Patriots book

AFRICAN AMERICAN AND AMERICAN INDIAN PATRIOTS IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

SUPPLEMENT 2008–2011

NATIONAL SOCIETY DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

DAR's Diverse Representation is Growing: Membership, Chapter leadership, and the National Board of Management

Middletown African Methodist Episcopal Cemetery, Maryland Cemetery Restorations

Bobbi Bailey
Morristown Chapter DAR
baileysr@gmail.com

DAR's E Pluribus Unum Initiative
<https://honoringourpatriots.dar.org/e-pluribus-unum-main/>

Morristown Chapter DAR
morristownnjdar.org